Hartford, because her crabby manager-captain Connery took cold feet in the game with Holyoke last Friday, forfeiting the contest, has been dealt with severely by President Tracy, who has slapped a fine of $100 on Connery, $25 on Owner Clarkin, and $10 each on players Justice and Flournoy, who started the argument. The decision is one that will meet with approval on the circuit as the Senators have taken too much of the rule of the league in their hands of lafe. Crabby playing is all right at times, but there is always a limit, and Hartford has overstepped that mark.

Manager Hanna has received word from Plummer who skipped his team a few days ago. Plummer is out in Religiousline O. Hanna says he will not blacklist him as his explanation appealed to him.

POLICE HAVE STRONG TEAM

Malone, Ivers and Blansfield Were Once Professional Players and They Know How Some, Even Today.

The local policemen's baseball team has been notified of the withdrawal 294 from the league of the New Britain 292 Cops, which will cut out the game that the Bridgeport pounders had in the Hardware town, this Thursday. It 286 was stated, however, that Hartford 283 is making an effort to get into the 282 league and may land the position vacated by New Britain taking on her 281 schedule. In that case the Bridgeport stalwarts will be in Hartford, 278 Thursday. New Britain was forced to withdraw because so many of the players were supernumeraries who would not be able to play all the games on the schedule.

The local team which is composed of the pick of the best of the force has been in practice for a number of weeks, showing their heels to every team they have bucked up against. They play their last practice game this afternoon with the Telegram Gems. Their chances for a pennant for the winning team are bright. They have a crack battery in Tom Malone and Tom Ivers, both of whom have played professional ball. Champion Nails Montreal Lie in Personal Statement.

Toronto, July 13.—James J. Jeffries was a sorely vexed man when he was shown the report from Montreal printed all over the United States that he would not meet Jack Johnson in a contest for the heavy-weight championship title of the world.

Jeffries was under the impression that the alleged interview was sent abroad with the intent to hurt him in the eyes of the American lover of puglism and to injure his value as a theatriest attraction.

He was emphatic in his contradiction of the statement that he would not meet Johnson. He said with anger in every tone:

"The statement that I have repudiated my promise to fight Johnson is absolutely untrue."

Then he hurried out to the park, where he had an afternoon and evening engagement. There his manager and sparring partner, Sam Berger, dictated this statement.
